

JOE RAELIN

Joe Raelin has been conducting a wide variety of leadership programs for executives and professionals worldwide throughout much of his career. He holds the Asa. S. Knowles Chair of Practice-Oriented Education at Northeastern University and is also Professor in the College of Business Administration. Formerly, he was Professor of Management at the Wallace E. Carroll School of Management. He received his Ph.D. from the State University of New York at Buffalo. His research has centered on executive and professional education and development using action learning. He is a prolific writer having produced some 100 articles appearing in the leading management journals. He is also a management consultant with over 30 years of experience working with a wide variety of organizational clients. His publications include: The Clash of Cultures: Managers Managing Professionals (Harvard Business School Press, 1991), considered now to be a classic in the field of managing professionals; Creating Leaderful Organizations: How to Bring Out Leadership in Everyone (Berrett-Koehler, 2003), and the recent, Work-Based Learning: Bridging Knowledge and Action in the Workplace(Jossey-Bass, 2008).