

MICHELLE HANSFORD

Michelle Hansford has held the position of WACE Director since June 2006. During her time as Director, Michelle has played a central role in the planning of many WACE International Symposia, Regional Conference, and World Conferences, which has led her to Charleston, South Carolina; Singapore; Sydney, Australia; and Madrid, Spain.

Michelle is currently working on programs in Vancouver, Canada; Hong Kong; and Graz, Austria.

Holding the position of WACE Director has also enabled Michelle to write, edit, and layout for publications; initiate the implementation of international programs for WACE members; and correspond with WIL colleagues from around the globe.

A 2003 graduate of Assumption College in Worcester, Massachusetts, where she studied English and Communications, Michelle is currently pursuing a Masters Degree in English Literature. Subsequent to her 2003 graduation, Michelle joined the world of marketing before entering the WACE organization. Michelle believes that her past experiences of writing, communicating, and marketing are essential to effectively performing her current job duties.

Michelle worked with the Institute Faculty in both 2007 and 2008 and assisted them in promoting the Institute to a global audience. Michelle is pleased to join the Institute this year as a member of the Organizing Committee.